

Rebecca F. Grossman is Chief Executive Officer of the Virginia Peninsula Association of REALTORS® (VPAR). She has served as chief administrator of all Association activities and as Director of the Peninsula Real Estate School since August of 1993. Prior to accepting the position with VPAR she was the Executive Vice President of the Lorain County Association of REALTORS® in Ohio. Rebecca has been a REALTOR® Association Executive for over 20 years. She is a graduate from Kent State University in Ohio with a Bachelor of Music Degree.

Rebecca holds her REALTOR® Certified Executive (RCE) designation, her Certified Internet Professional (e-Pro) designation and is a Virginia State Certified Mediator serving as a volunteer mediator for the Better Business Bureau Hampton Roads Community Mediation Center. In early 2009 she was granted the GREEN Designation and received the GREEN Instructor Certification from the National Association of REALTORS® Real Estate Buyers Agent Council. In 2007 she served as a Commissioner on the Hampton Housing and Redevelopment Authority and is currently on the Gloria Dei Ministries Inc. Board of Directors. This ministry operates “Sunrise House” which is an adult day care facility and the Minister Academy.

Rebecca has a 21-year-old daughter Sarah and resides with her husband Frank in Gloucester, Virginia.