

As a blogger, trainer, author, speaker, and coach Patricia Weber helped the more introverted around the world, go from fear to remarkable in getting their voice heard in everyday business and life situations.

Patricia is a Coachville graduate, Neuro-Linguistic Programming (NLP) Practitioner, and two-time award winner of Peninsula Women's Networker of the Year (only the second member in its 40 years to receive this award twice).

She has high-level expertise in Sales, Marketing, Leadership, Presentations and in particular Networking.

Patricia Weber is an internationally recognized introvert authority on radio, published author, and coach. Featured over these years in Entrepreneur, Training, HR MyTime, and other professional industry journals.

You can find a full listing of her books on Amazon in print and for Kindle <http://amazon.com/author/patriciaweber>.

She and her husband Marty both have demonstrated phenomenal belief and support for the work of Langley Civic Leaders Association. The passing of Marty in 2017 represented a huge loss to LCLA and the nation. Marty was interred at Arlington National Cemetery on February 28, 2017.