

Mark L. Bellamy, Jr. has been with York County since 2001 and now serves as a Deputy County Administrator. As such Mark oversees the Public Works, Planning & Development Services and Community Services Departments, which includes approximately 300 full-time employees. Prior to this position, he served as the Director of Public Works, General Services Director and Fleet Manager. During his time with the County he has also served as an adjunct in the Virginia Community College System instructing in Management, Organizational Behavior and Entrepreneurial Ventures until 2013.

He holds a MBA, Business Administration from Averett University and a BA, Business Administration from Virginia Wesleyan University. He has completed the Senior Executive Institute, UVA; the Virginia Peninsula Chamber of Commerce Leadership Institute; and is certified in National Incident Management Systems.

Mark is a current member of the International City/County Management Association (ICMA); the Virginia Local Government Managers Association (VLGMA), the American Public Works Association (APWA); the Association for Equipment Management Professionals, the Kiwanis (Grafton) Club; and the Langley Civic Leaders Association.