

Greg Garrett has decades of experience working with clients in Hampton Roads. Along with a strong team with commitment to excellence and the proven track record, greg garrett realty will be able to take care of the active duty and retired military personnel real estate needs successfully.

greg garrett realty has been closely connected with our military community since inception. Greg's father served in the Navy during WWII. Greg's Principle Broker, Dick Hyde, has been with the company for 28 years and is a retired Army Colonel. Chuck Dunlap has been the company's Trainer for 25 years and is a retired Air Force Lieutenant Colonel.

Greg has lived in Hampton Roads his entire life. He and his team make their clients a priority by providing amazing service based on decades of experience, thousands of past clients and amazing contacts to get things done.

Greg has been in the real estate business for over 38 years, starting his own real estate company over 30 years ago. He started in the real estate business at the age of 19. Early in his career, Greg became one of the top agents in Virginia. He then became the #1 agent throughout Hampton Roads, Virginia. He has been recognized for leading one of the top 50 real estate teams in the USA (as published in Realtor® Magazine). He is the 2005 Recipient of The Good Neighbor Award which recognizes 5 REALTORS® a year throughout the USA who have made an extraordinary commitment to improving the quality of life in their communities through volunteer work and the 2009 Recipient of Humanitarian of The Year presented by HRO (Human Relief Organization).

Greg spends time with family, friends, Orphan Helpers, watersports, basketball, his tiny dog "Itsy" as well as community affairs.

Greg is a 14th generation Virginian who loves people and his community.