

After graduating college in 1971, Chuck entered the US Air Force. While on active duty he held base-level and Headquarters positions in the United States, Thailand and Europe. In New York City he taught and recruited for the Air Force ROTC and Academy programs. While in Europe Chuck managed base-level clubs and recreation programs (MWR) and worked for the Air Forces Europe Inspector General as an inspector and Director of the Complaints and Inquiries Office. He retired from Headquarters Tactical Air Command at Langley AFB in 1991.

While investigating his “second career” options, Chuck met Greg Garrett and was impressed with him and the company. Their sense of integrity and team spirit convinced him there was no other place to go. After completing Greg Garrett University and gaining valuable experience, Chuck assumed the position of company trainer for two years. During that time he earned a Broker’s license. Chuck has been an active member in the Virginia Peninsula Association of Realtors® (VPAR), was selected as Vice Chairman of the Legal Liability Committee, helped formulate the REIN (Peninsula and Southside) contract of purchase and was elected to the Board of Directors.

Chuck was an award winner every year in the business, and established himself as Greg Garrett’s top agent (listing, selling or overall) each year from 1996 to 2008. He also received VPAR’s top (Platinum) production award for eight consecutive years.

In 2012 Chuck became Managing Broker for Greg Garrett Realty’s Chesapeake office. Then, in 2014 he assumed the job of Company Trainer. In that position, Chuck totally revamped “Greg Garrett University”, a program to provide new agents the knowledge and tools necessary for successful careers in Real Estate. In March 2019 Chuck was hired to take on the lead position of Principal Broker for Greg Garrett Realty (now Garrett Realty Partners), responsible for the activities of approximately 100 agents.

Chuck has been an active member of the Isle of Wight Republican Party, currently as the Committee’s secretary. Outside interests now revolve mostly around family get-togethers with sons, daughter-in-law and granddaughter. He and his wife, Lucy, enjoy staycations in the area, and an occasional night out.
