Biography - Nhu Yeargin

Nhu has worked in the landscape industry since the 1990's. While spending over ten years in the shipping business, property investment among other enterprises, she also held the administrator position with YLS Inc., a Class A landscape contractor that focuses on serving its communities in the southeastern Virginia area.

YLS has a two acre, 5000 square feet facility in Hampton with its corporate office in York County. As a full service landscape contractor, YLS is constantly in the process of improving its baseline and streamlining its operation to provide exceptional services to its clients, whether internal or external.

Nhu strongly encourages the entire company to innovate and to come up with improvements and ideas that would put safety as first priority, increase the satisfaction of YLS's internal/external customer base and eliminate resource wastes. The company strives to serve its customers with a dedicated staff whose focus is to provide the best quality possible with innovative products and services that would enable them to enjoy their outdoor landscapes to the fullest.

A graduate of Christopher Newport College, B.A. 1986 and the College of William & Mary, M.B.A. 1988, Nhu's community involvements includes the Peninsula Metropolitan YMCA, Peninsula Women's Network, the Virginia Center for Inclusive Communities, Riverside Regional Medical Center, the York County Chamber of Commerce, Ile of Wight, Smithfield Windsor Chamber of Commerce, the Peninsula Chinese American Association, the Mariners' Museum, VA Asia Chamber of Commerce, Peninsula Fine Art Center, The Free Community Clinic of Newport News and First United Church of Christ in Hampton.
