

Ann Bane Biography

Ann Bane is the Director of Community and Legislative Relations for Hampton City Schools. Among her various responsibilities, she particularly enjoys a focus on providing quality customer service to meet the individual needs of mobile military families.

Mrs. Bane is a native of Fredericksburg, Virginia and a graduate of Emory and Henry College in Emory, Virginia. Prior to moving to Hampton in 1986, she worked in political campaign management and as a lobbyist for the Virginia Farm Bureau in Richmond, Virginia. Ann proudly proclaims, "I was not born in Hampton, but I got here as fast as I could!"

Ann has a history of community and non-profit service to include:

- Military Affairs Committee, City of Hampton
- Neighborhood Commission, City of Hampton
- Town & Gown Committee, City of Hampton
- Sister Cities of Hampton
- School Investment Panel, City of Hampton
- Hampton Baptist Church, Board of Deacons
- Alumni Board of Directors, Emory & Henry College
- First Lady's Advisory Group, Commonwealth of Virginia
- Hampton Citizens' Unity Commission
- Charter Review Commission, City of Hampton
- Y. H. Thomas Community Center Board
- Little England Chapel Foundation Board
- Livability Commission, City of Hampton
- Hampton Frolics Board of Directors

She and her husband, John W. Bane, have three grown children – Greg, Will and Amelia.