

Mark Wilson is currently Vice President of Electronic and Support Services at BayPort Credit Union responsible for back office operations and data analytics services. Mark has worked for BayPort for the past 15 years. Prior to BayPort, Mark worked in an engineering research role at NASA Langley Research Center supporting the Acoustics and Atmospheric Sciences Divisions for a total of 10 years. He also spent 7 years working as a professional software developer for the anti-virus software company Symantec in Newport News.

Mark is a graduate of Virginia Tech with a Bachelor's Degree in Aerospace Engineering, and a Master's Degree in Applied Physics and Computer Science from Christopher Newport University where he served as an adjunct professor of Computer Science while pursuing his degree.

Mark is currently active with the Virginia Credit Union League, Virginia Peninsula Relay for Life, and the Churchland Lions Club. Mark currently lives in Suffolk with his wife and he has three adult children.